7. Assumptions and exclusions

- Client supplies the official SAVERZ logo, approved store locations, product list, legal sale terms, inventory confirmation, approved offers and website destination.
- Five promotional discount levels (40%, 50%, 45%, 35%, 40%) are illustrative concepts, not verified commercial commitments.
- Influencer fee allocation covers six micro- and two mid-tier creator slots from the approved strategy; named personalities are suggestions, not booked or guaranteed.
- Billboard locations, signboard permits, influencer rates, media inventory and vendor prices are estimates subject to written quotes and availability.
- Not included: actual merchandise discount subsidy, stock procurement, website hosting subscriptions beyond allowance, transport outside agreed area, legal fees, unapproved revisions, prize taxes, permits not specified, and any supplier tax not yet quoted.
- Client approval required before commitments; agency fees and third-party charges are not duplicated across categories.
- Actual campaign outcomes, reach, conversion, footfall and ROAS are not guaranteed. Results are measured after campaign.

8. Reconciliation with earlier marketing strategy

The earlier strategy estimated PKR 4,860,000 execution subtotal plus PKR 486,000 contingency = PKR 5,346,000. That was a planning-level marketing spend estimate, not a separately scoped agency quotation. This proposal preserves the execution allowances but reclassifies the already-budgeted influencer coordination (PKR 100,000) and tracking/reporting (PKR 85,000) as agency services, adds PKR 1,000,000 for previously unpriced agency deliverables, then recalculates contingency and illustrates agency-only tax. No item is charged twice.

9. Quotation validity and acceptance

Valid for 15 calendar days from 13 October 2026 (through 28 October 2026). Costs may change with confirmed locations, scope, platform rates, vendor quotes, tax treatment or client revisions. A final purchase order and written sign-off are required.
